

When Ian Goodhue and Lindsay Milakovic met, sparks flew and the air was filled with palpable and undeniable electricity. There was an inevitable throw-down, as two creatures of such enormous talent surely couldn't inhabit the earth together. Ian whipped out his bagpipes and then Lindsay fought back with some fire spinning. Ian countered with some soft shoe while simultaneously composing a song and then Lindsay retaliated by making up lyrics to his song about his soft shoe, then they both did a James Brown split/turn and ended up nose to nose staring into each other's blue eyes. There was only one solution to end this stalemate — fall madly in love and join forces.

They joined together in entertainment bliss, threw away their civilian last names and became the wildly engaging tour de force — THE GOODTIMES. Since then, there has been no looking back for this charming couple. The GoodTimes 2007 Wedding Show was a sold out smash hit! With a 300 person strong Kazoo parade followed by a sensational two act Variety Show; it was surely the event of the year. Since uniting, the GoodTimes have taken their unique form of entertainment to the far corners of the world performing in Mexico, Dubai, Lebanon and Ireland.

With a combined 40 years of performance experience, musical prowess and a love of all things ridiculous, The GoodTimes are masters of the art of Entertainment; you are guaranteed to have a Great Time with The GoodTimes.
